Further information will be collected directly from you when you complete forms at the start of your employment, for example, your bank and next of kin details. Other details may be collected directly from you in the form of official documentation such as your driving licence, passport or other right to work evidence.

In some cases, we will collect data about you from third parties, such as employment agencies, former employers when gathering references, an agency for the Disclosure and Barring Service, and the Department for Education.

Personal data is kept in personnel files or within the School's HR and IT systems.

6 Why we process your data

6.1 The law on data protection allows us to process your data for certain reasons only:

- to perform the employment contract that we are party to
- to carry out our legal obligations
- to carry out our legitimate interests
- to protect your interests and
- where something is done in the public interest

6.2 All of the processing carried out by us falls into one of the permitted reasons. Generally, we will rely on the first three reasons set out above to process your data. For example, we need to collect your personal data in order to:

- carry out the employment contract that we have entered into with you and
- ensure you are paid.

6.3 We also need to collect your data to ensure we are complying with legal requirements such as:

- ensuring tax and National Insurance is paid
- carrying out checks in relation to your right to work in the UK and
- carrying out checks in relation to your teaching status
- making reasonable adjustments for disabled employees
- providing information to the Department for Education, the Independent Schools Inspectorate and other statutory bodies

6.4 We also collect data so that we can carry out activities which are in the legitimate interests of the School. We have set these out below:

- making decisions about who to offer initial employment to, and subsequent internal appointments, promotions etc
- making decisions about salary and other benefits
- providing contractual benefits to you

- maintaining comprehensive up to date human resource records about you to ensure, amongst other things, effective correspondence can be achieved and appropriate contact points in the event of an emergency are maintained
- effectively monitoring both your conduct and your performance and to undertake procedures with regard to both of these if the need arises
- offering a method of recourse for you against decisions made about you via a grievance procedure
- assessing training needs
- implementing an effective sickness absence management system including monitoring the amount of leave and subsequent actions to be taken including the making of reasonable adjustments
- gaining expert medical opinion when making decisions about your fitness for work
- managing statutory leave and pay systems such as maternity leave and pay etc
- business planning and restructuring exercises
- dealing with legal claims made against us
- preventing fraud
- ensuring our administrative and IT systems are secure and robust against unauthorised access

7.1 Special categories of data are data relating to your:

- health
- sex life
- sexual orientation
- race
- ethnic origin
- political opinion
- religion
- trade union membership
- genetic and biometric data.

7.2 We must process special categories of data in accordance with more stringent guidelines. Most commonly, we will process special categories of data when the following applies:

- you have given explicit consent to the processing
- we must process the data in order to carry out our legal obligations

- we must process data for reasons of substantial public interest
- you have already made the data public.

7.3 We may use your special category data:

- for the purposes of equal opportunities monitoring
- in our sickness absence management procedures
- to determine reasonable adjustments

7.4 We do not need your consent if we use special categories of personal data in order to carry out our legal obligations or exercise specific rights under employment law. However, we may ask for your consent to allow us to process certain particularly sensitive data. If this occurs, you will be made fully aware of the reasons for the processing. As with all cases of seeking consent from you, you will have full control over your decision to give or withhold consent and there will be no consequences where consent is withheld. Consent, once given, may be withdrawn at any time. There will be no consequences where consent is withdrawn.

8 Criminal conviction data

We will only collect criminal conviction data where it is appropriate given the nature of your role and where the law permits us. This data will usually be collected at the recruitment stage, however, may also be collected during your employment. We use criminal conviction data in the following ways:

- to check your suitability to work with young people

We process this data because of our legal obligation under the Education Act (2002) to Keep Children Safe in Education.

9 If you do not provide your data to us

One of the reasons for processing your data is to allow us to carry out our duties in line with your contract of employment. If you do not provide us with the data needed to do this, we will be unable to perform those duties e.g. ensuring you are paid correctly.

We may also be prevented from confirming, or continuing with, your employment with us in relation to our legal obligations if you do not provide us with this information e.g. confirming your right to work in the UK or, where appropriate, confirming your legal status for carrying out your work via a criminal records check.

10 Sharing your data

- 10.1 Your data will be shared with colleagues within the School where it is necessary for them to undertake their duties. This includes, for example, your line manager for their management of you, the HR department for maintaining personnel records and the payroll department for administering payment under your contract of employment.

- 10.4 We share your data with third parties, for example to obtain references as part of the recruitment process, request that former schools or universities can confirm your qualifications.
- 10.5 We may share your data with third parties where this is needed to educate pupils or in your co-curricular and pastoral roles, for example, to sign up to an online e-learning service, or as a school representative in a co-curricular activity run by a third party.
- 10.6 We may also share your data with third parties as part of a School sale or restructure, or for other reasons to comply with a legal obligation upon us.
- 10.7 We may share your data with bodies outside of the European Economic Area, for example if you are part of an overseas trip which is operated by an organisation outside of the EEA. Some countries meet the GDPR requirements. The European Commission has produced a list of countries which have adequate data protection rules. The list can be found here: https://ec.europa.eu/info/law/law-topic/data-protection/data-transfers-outside-eu/adequacy-protection-personal-data-non-eu-countries\_en

We have put the following measures in place to ensure that your data is transferred securely and that the bodies who receive the data that we have transferred process it in a way required by EU and UK data protection laws:

- Proposed trips and activities abroad will include an assessment of compliance by any providers who we share personal information with.

11 Protecting your data

We are aware of the requirement to ensure your data is protected against accidental loss or disclosure, destruction and abuse. We have implemented processes to guard against such.

Where we share your data with third parties, we provide written instructions to them to ensure that your data are held securely and in line with GDPR requirements. Third parties must implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the security of your data.

12 How long we keep your data for

In line with data protection principles, we only keep your data for as long as we need it for, which will be at least for the duration of your employment with us. Retention periods can vary depending on why we need your data.

We may keep some of your data for a long time, even indefinitely, where these are of historic interest, for example, if someone were to write a book about the school.

13 Automated decision making

No decision will be made about you solely on the basis of automated decision making (where a decision is taken about you using an electronic system without human involvement) which has a significant impact on you.

14 Your rights in relation to your data

The law on data protection gives you certain rights in relation to the data we hold on you.

These are:

- 14.1 the right to be informed. This means that we must tell you how we use your data, and this is the purpose of this privacy notice
- 14.2 the right of access. You have the right to access the data that we hold on you. To do so, you should make a subject access request by e-mail to the Privacy Officer, or through the IT helpdesk.

- 14.4 the right to have information deleted. If you would like us to stop processing your data, you have the right to ask us to delete it from our systems where you believe there is no reason for us to continue processing it
- 14.5 the right to restrict the processing of the data. For example, if you believe the data we hold is incorrect, we will stop processing the data (whilst still holding it) until we have ensured that the data is correct
- 14.6 the right to portability. You may transfer the data that we hold on you for your own purposes
- 14.7 the right to object to the inclusion of any information. You have the right to object to the way we use your data where we are using it for our legitimate interests
- 14.8 the right to regulate any automated decision-making and profiling of personal data. You have a right not to be subject to automated decision making in way that adversely affects your legal rights.
- 14.9 Where you have provided consent to our use of your data, you also have the unrestricted right to withdraw that consent at any time. Withdrawing your consent means that we will stop processing the data that you had previously given us consent to use. There will be no consequences for withdrawing your consent. However, in some cases, we may continue to use the data where so permitted by having a legitimate reason for doing so.

If you wish to exercise any of the rights explained above, please contact Mr Denis Lundie, the privacy officer.
